Bourgogne Aligoté

Bourgogne Aligoté 2023

Grape Variety : Aligoté

Soil : Clay and limestone

Site : This wine is issued from Aligoté grapes which is the second grape variety of white Burgundy. It can be produced anywhere in Burgundy and reflects the characteristics of its terroir of origin.

The Vintage 2023 : After a mild winter, beginning of spring was marked by unstable weather conditions, which fortunately enough settled down end May with warm and sometimes very warm temperatures. This situation encouraged a rapid blossoming in excellent conditions. Spring ended with a water deficit which was never compensated. July and August were marked by a succession of very hot temperatures and storms. End of August, a very hot weather settled down with temperatures around 35°C which enabled the grapes to perfect their ripeness . At Chanson, the harvest started on September 5 and ended on September 16. The white wines are very expressive with beautiful aromas of pale fleshed fruit and an outstanding structure.

Tasting : Pale gold color. Refreshing aromas of citrus fruit. Lively and energetic. Well crafted with a well-integrated acidity. Refreshing aftertaste.

Food pairing : It is perfectly matched with charcuterie, grilled fish and some cheeses (especially goat cheeses)
