2013 VINTAGE

“A jewel from Burgundy, property of Champagne Bollinger. Aromas of yellow fruits, bacon, sweet spices and pear. Deep and generous structure, slightly buttery but taut and with a beautiful acidity. Quite rich. Wait two or three years.” Frédéric Durand-Bazin - Le figaro.fr Vin - La Sélection de bourgognes du Figaro – May. 8, 2016

Score: 90/100 - Preview - Wine Enthusiast August issue 2016

2010 VINTAGE

"Citrus notes on a touch of vanilla." Obsession.nouvelobs.com - Sep. 2013

2006 VINTAGE

«Lovely green racy hints on the nose. Some delicacy. Very savoury yet pretty.» Jancis Robinson’s forum

2005 VINTAGE

«This is also distinctly fruity yet a bit more restrained and elegant with reasonably well-detailed flavors that are not particularly complex but they are crisp and agreeably dry on the linear finish. » Burghound – Oct. 2007

«Lean and tense, with lemon and apple notes stretched taut between the racy structure and mineral intensity, with a nice stony finish. Needs time to relax. »
Score 89/100 Wine Spectator – Sep. 2007

2004 VINTAGE

«Beautiful and fine aromas of white flowers dominate the nose. Powerful and delicate palate with a great purity on the finish. » Bourgogne aujourd'hui – Apr. May. 2006

2002 VINTAGE

« A beautiful ruby colour, red fruits aromas on a touch of chocolate... This is an elegant Burgundy wine with delicate oak notes. A perfect match for white and roast meats, game and cheeses, preferably from Burgundy or Champagne. » In Vino – Oct. 2006

« The nose is fruity, slightly toasted, charming but solid. It is a perfect match with white meats and roast game. »
Avantages – Mar. 2007

« The Beaune Bastion has red fruit aromas with an underlying hint of chocolate, all enhanced by a toasty note. Charming, elegant, harmonious, structured and generous, this wine has a beautiful aromatic complexity underlined by a subtle wood note. » Republicain Lorrain – Oct. 2006
