“A spicy style, this is also compact and sleek, with dusty tannins framing strawberry, cherry and mineral flavors. Balanced on the fresh side, almost racy in profile, ending in a cascade of fruit and spice. Best from 2020 through 2033.
Score : 94” Wine Spectator Insider – August 30, 2017

“Very ripe red fruit, almost cherry liqueur but without the spirit. Then a dry, tight structure that corsets up all that fruit. Tannins are holding the fruit in check on the palate but it’s all there. 17+/20” Julia Harding – jancisrobinson.com

"A more elegant and airier nose offers up essence of violet, plum and a lovely array of spice elements. There is a finer and sleeker mouth feel to the lightly stony and suave middle weight flavors that culminate in a beautifully long and quite firm but not at all rustic finale. This is lovely. "Aromas of licorice, green olive and sage complement the cherry and strawberry flavors in this classy red. Silky and intense, with fine balance and a lingering aftertaste of spice and olive. Best from 2018 through 2028." Score: 92/100

"Here is a beautiful, deep nose of focused dark-red fruit. Cooler fruit in the mouth, plusher textured too - it's a velvet tannin, and less-so the big "block" in the middle as it shows in many wines here. Slowly leaching, the fruit flavour returns. More elegant - if that's the right word for such concentration!" Bill Nanson - The burgundy report - Mars 2014

"This is also overtly floral with soft spice elements adding breadth to the pretty and fresh mix of red berry fruit scents. There is a refined mouth feel to the well-detailed and lively middle weight flavors that possess very good mid-palate concentration before culminating in a solidly powerful but balanced finish that is clean and refreshing." "Rather pure and lifted on the aroma. This has a lively, dancing quality. There is this smoky note-maybe the stalks...The tannins are finer grained, more stalky certainly, but pleasantly so." Score : 18.25 Sarah Marsh--Dec. 2012

"The floral, berry and sandalwood aromas are seductive in this red, leading to plenty of juicy cherry, strawberry, rose and spice flavors. Delicate yet intense, with fine tannins and a spicy aftertaste. Best from 2015 through 2023." Score : 92 Wine Spectator _ April 30 2014

"This is more noticeably floral in character with a pretty nose of exceptionally fresh crushed red berries, cassis and anise hints. There is a velvety mouth feel to the relatively voluminous flavors that exude a palate coating dry extract that helps to buffer the firm but fine tannins on the lightly mineral-inflected, balanced and admirably long finish. Like the Clos des Marconnets, this is really very good worth your consideration. 2021+" Score : 90-92 Burghound-April2013- Issue 50

"Given that the wine is whole bunch fermented, which always invests the palate with distinctive tannins, this wine is supple and smooth in that context. The fruits are darker, and certainly carry the counter-thrust of the tannins." James Halliday _ Wine Companion.com _ 07 Nov 2013

"Floral aromas of violet. Sappy texture, refined tannins, attractive and complex." Obsession.nouvelobs.com - Sept 2013

"Balancing intensity and grace, this is a classical Burgundy, a baroque, silken brocade of raspy raspberry, allspice and earthy blackness. "The soil is rocky, not deep, but with some clay and rocks and just 20 cm beneath is solid rock. Warm soil with good exposition S/E. So good sunny land. It seems compact on the nose to begin with, but there is also some seductive fruit on the aroma. Intense and pure on the attack. Lovely ripe, red fruit, bright with juicy bursting berries. There is a richness coupled with exuberance here. It has excellent vigour. The tannins are firm, but smooth. It is fresh and has power, but reined in with elegance. A very persistent finish. Fine to very fine. From 2016/17" Score 18.75 Sarah Marsh_ Burgundy Briefing_ November 2011

"Strong reduction knocks down the nose but there is excellent volume and phenolic maturity to the supporting structure shaping the suave and mouth coating flavors that are perhaps the richest of any of these Beaune 1ers.
