“This is markedly phenolic in character (think olive or nut oil nuances) with additional notes present in the form of petrol, resin, white peach and a subtle application of toasty oak. The exceptionally rich, concentrated and powerful flavors also coat the mouth with dry extract that also serves to buffer the moderately firm acid spine on the citrusy finish. This opulent yet entirely serious effort is really very good and worth checking out. 89/100” – Burghound – June 2017

“An alluring white, from the lightly smoky, spicy oak, lemon verbena and apricot aromas to the ripe peach, melon and mineral flavors. Harmonious, building to a long aftertaste. Best from 2017 through 2025.” Score: 90/100 - Bruce Sanderson – Wine Spectator - November 15, 2015

“Chanson is famous for the constancy in the quality of their wines. Chanson's offer includes nearly all the most prestigious appellations of Burgundy. This wine needs to warm up and then it gives off fruity aromas mixed with mild spices. It is well-structured and complex. It is quite shy and needs time. A great wine with a long finish.” Les Echos- Série Limitée - 11-09-2015

"This house of Beaune impresses with the precision and the intensity of its burgundian wines. This generous Chassagne, with crisp fruit, intense, archetype of the appellation, is a brilliant example." Bettane & Desseauve/Bernard Le Marois - Les Echos supplément week end 19/09/2014

CHASSAGNE MONTRACHET

"Aromatic, showing lime blossom, acacia, apple and spice notes. Elegant and balanced, with a fine, lingering finish. Drink now through 2018. Score : 89 Wine Spectator - Dec 15 2013

"An interesting nose of resin, rosemary, pear and floral hints gives way to impressively rich large-scaled flavors that are quite generous as there is fine mid-palate density and plenty of mouth coating extract. There is good punch and underlying tension to the finish that offers perfectly good persistence though not especially good complexity. 2016+" Score: 88 Burghound-June 2013

"This combines with a very spicy floral character. A broad, slightly chunky and exotically flowery palate. It has a loose knit texture. It has plenty of character and a juicy finish. Excellent typicity. The most accessible. From 2014." Sarah Marsh-Dec. 2012

"A reserved nose but with a nice and clean definition. This wine opens up on the palate and shows a good structure for a village appellation." Success RVF_ Juin 2012_ N°562_ p.113

"A top quality village appellation, displaying the precision and breed of its origin, rich but without excess." Score: 16.5 Le Guide Bettane et Dessauve des vins de France--Edition 2013

"A smoky aroma of bread dough gives way to lemon cake, beeswax and hints of butterscotch in this rich yet elegant white. Hums through the finish with precision and balance. Drink now through 2016." Score: 90 Wine Spectator--Jan. Feb. 2013

«Wood is very precisely integrated in this Chassagne which appealingly displays a finely buttered structure and a pleasant freshness on the finish.» LARVF_552_jun_2011

"Quite a presence of oak on the aroma. There was no Bâtonage used, yet this is notably creamy. It certainly seems to demonstrate Jean-Pierre's point that no or little bâtonage is needed in this vintage. It could easily make the wine too fat. It drifts onto the palate; the middle palate is much more impressive though. There is a plenty of orange character, really firm acidity, which is more notable on the finish. (The acidity seems high here, yet it is the same as Mont mains at 4,5) It is quite juicy. The most disjointed of the three at the moment, yet the finish is good. It should be as good as the Puligny, better than the Perusal. Good++. From 2013" Sarah Marsh- Burgundy Briefing_ November 2011

"Much richer on the nose than the Puligny. Bright, fresh, almost creamy fruit. A very nice whole. Neat with medium persistence." Score 16+ Jancis Robinson_ Feb 2012

«A deft application of wood surrounds a pretty blend of resin, earth and ripe yellow orchard fruit aromas that possess plenty of richness and mid-palate density as well as good finishing complexity. This moderately long and attractively intense effort is not particularly refined but it is delicious. Score: 88» Burghound 33 - jul - 2011

«Beautifully extracted wine, big , deep, fresh but mature, very typical and highly recommended.

«Aromas of ripe yellow fruits announce: 1 wine that has rich fruit flavors of apricots touched by pineapple. It clues have the attractive, nervy texture of 2008, along with an important layer of toast. Score: 89» Wine Enthusiast_sep_2011

« Fine herbal aromas mixed with ripe citrus and a firm mineral streak. Surprisingly richer and broader on the palate than the Meursault but firm minerality at the end. Not quite as long. » Score: 17/20 - Julia Harding MW -Jancis Robinson.com/Janvier 2010

« Broad, open and flowery aroma. Quite languid with sweet and juicy pipe pear characters. It follows through with some firm more stony characters and good concentration to a decent finish with a touch of smooth minerality. » Tasting Notes, Numéro II/ Sarah Marsh/Été 2009

« Precise and crystal clear. Very racy. » LA REVUE DU VIN DE FRANCE - June 2009 \(p 117\)

« An appellation known for its dependability. This bottle comes from a good year and you're getting value for money as you savour its heady fruity aroma with pears and to the fore, with toasty, brioche notes, good structure and length» Margaret Hickey/ Business Plus Magazine/ Mai 2009

CHASSAGNE MONTRACHET

« A wine that is soft, rounded, ready to drink. It is without concentration or great acidity, but the white and light green fruits are delicious, giving an open character that is framed by toasty flavors and some spice » WINE ENTHUSIAST - May 2009

« Reserved nose with aromas of white flowers. Supple mouthfeel, dense and mineral finish. Lots of structure. » BOURGOGNE AUJOURD' HUI - November 2008

« Creamy and rich, yet elegant, this white exudes citrus blossom, peach, lemon custard and stone aromas and flavors. Beautifully balanced, with a clean, graceful finish. Drink now through 2014. »
WINE SPECTATOR - January / February 2009

« This burgundy house is now in the hands of the Champenois (Bollinger) but it remains in situ. Pale gold colour with green tinges, this 2006 has it all. Floral fragrances mixed with citrus fruit. The palate is nice, not so powerful, with lively citrus fruit again. The oak (vinification and aging for 10 months) is quite present. It is not an extraordinary ride but a nice one in this vintage and appellation. » LE GUIDE HACHETTE - Edition 2009
