“A broad-ranging nose displays ripe aromas of plum, cassis, earth, game, smoke and plenty of spice nuances, all of which is trimmed in just enough wood to notice. There is outstanding size, weight and mid- palate concentration to the powerful, velvety and stony big-bodied flavors that coat the palate with dry extract that also does a fine job of buffering the very firm but not really robust finale. This could be the best wine in the range in 2015 though the Clos des Fèves may well give it a run for its money in time. (92-94)/2030+” – Burghound – April 2017

“Cask sample. Mid cherry red. Ripe and seductive red-cherry fruit on the nose. Deep and already so rounded on the palate. Generous fruit in a light framework. Juicy and fresh, the tannins relatively gentle but all in balance. Juicy, fresh aftertaste. 17.5/20” – Julia Harding – jancisrobinson.com

« Soft wood frames an overtly earthy, ripe and once again distinctly cool nose of both red and dark pinot fruit that is cut with plenty of earth and herbal characters. There is excellent complexity to the delicious middle weight plus flavors that possess both good volume and an almost pungent minerality, all wrapped in a beautifully long and only mildly austere finale that avoids overt rusticity. Note that moderate patience will be required here. 2024+ » Score: 90-93 – Allen Meadows – Burghound April 2016

"There is plenty of sauvage character to the mostly floral-suffused nose that also has notes of both red and dark pinot fruit. There is ample power, size, weight and concentration to the broad-shouldered flavors that terminate in a beautiful complex and impressively persistent finish." Score : 92 Burghound.com - April 2014 - Allen Meadows

"Chanson has upped its game in recent vintages and is now one of the best négociants in Burgundy. This is made with purchased grapes, although there is a good measure of control over the vineyards. It's a sappy, appropriately wild Corton with the backbone and acidity that's typical of the Grand Cru balanced by succulent fruit sweetness." Score : 95 Burgundy 2012- Special Report - Tim Atkin

"Vinification in full bunches is noticeable in this wine and this give to this Corton a beautiful structure and an interesting aromatic complexity. A very good potential." Great success, LA RVF _ June 2013

"This is a powerful wine with complex structure, dense fruits and a solid texture. It's dry, firm, dark and still very young. The core of the wine is still tannin, the black cherry fruit giving so much richness before the fresh acidity cuts in. Drink from 2018." Score : 94 Wine enthusiast - September 2014

"Rather ripe, full and upfront. A big juicy wine with plenty of tannins. Broad and muscular structure. More power than elegance. A beefy wine with a long, assertive finish. Does it has the complexity for a grand cru ? From 2018." Score: 18 Sarah Marsh--Dec. 2012

"As one might reasonably expect this is markedly less expressive than the Beaune 1er with its restrained nose of both red and dark berry fruit, earth, humus, smoke and exotic tea scents. There is impressive volume to the well-muscled and broad-shouldered flavors that possess plenty of underlying tension, all wrapped in a complex, rustic and moderately austere finish. This will require at least a decade to be at its best. 2021+" Score: 89-92 Burghound-April 2013- Issue 50

"Well defined, the fruit is still closed but the ripeness is there. A reserved and taut wine. We appreciate its chewy character and its structure. It needs time to soften." Success La RVF_ Juin 2012_ N°562_ p.90

CORTON GRAND CRU

2010 Vintage

"Not an enormous, obvious step up from the premiers crus. Very juicy with some vibrant fruit underneath. Very dry finish. Good but not stunning." Score 17 - Jancis Robinson_ Feb 2012

"(from le Meix). A highly complex and pungently earthy nose of intense floral notes is accompanied by ripe cassis and dark berry fruit. The supple, round and delicious flavors are unusually accessible for a young Corton and this terminates with a slightly sweet if moderately long finish. An atypical if perfectly good example. 2020+" Score 89-91 - Burghound_ April 2012_ p.47

"In the south part of the appellation with a southerly exposition under Le Charlemagne. This is new. Quite soft aroma. Subtle and easily accessible. It is fluid and pure and ripples gentle across the palate. There is some minerality threaded with the fruit. Soft, fine grained tannins. It has charm, but lacks some substance for grand cru. From 2016" Score 18 - Sarah Marsh_ Burgundy Briefing_ November 2011
