Score : 14/20 – Guide des Vins Bettane + Desseauve 2017

« Here the markedly savage and pungently earthy nose displays much darker fruit, in particular black cherry, along with hints of violet and sandalwood. There is a lovely sense of vibrancy to the detailed and sleekly muscular flavors that are presently youthfully austere yet there is fine finishing depth and length. This will need a minimum of 4 to 5 years of cellaring first but it should be worth the wait. Worth your consideration. 2021+ » Score: 90/100 - Allen Meadows - Burghound - April 2016

"A completely different nose is present here with its mix of red berries and earth but this is Santenay style earth that is less humus and more iron-inflected compared to the Gevrey. There is a touch of wood present on the lightly mineral-infused medium-bodied flavors that possess a lovely sense of vibrancy on the firm, rustic and lingering finish. This is solidly structured but not hard and if you have some patience this offers fine value. 2020+." Score: 89 Burghound – June 2015

"Lightish crimson. Gentle red cherry fruit. A touch peppery. Soft, juicy, straightforward and finishes with mouthwatering but not excessive freshness. Drink 2016-2020." Score: 19/20 Julia Harding

"Visual aspect: ruby-red colour, with black dried fruits, sloe. Slightly peppery. Palate: supple first taste, broad, powerful; Tannic structure, dry tannings. Match with foods: beef cheek with pepper; jugged hare. Comments: beautiful to accompany venison because of its rustic character and its robustness. Ageing: 2020" Sommeliers international - Hors-Série - N° 149 – November 12, 2015

« This Premier Cru displays a beautiful structure, with fleshy and pretty notes of black fruit, underlined with a delicate touch of spice. Very well made»

La Revue du Vin de France_542_jun_2010

« An intensely earthy and wild berry fruit nose marries into detailed, mineral and vibrant middle weight flavors that culminate in a moderately austere and solidly persistent finish. This offers very good if not truly exceptionally quality for the appellation.

« Palish cherry colour. Inviting, lightly spiced red fruit. Good depth of fruit, fresh and moreish. Lots of early pleasure but not without structure and a smooth - but not soft - long finish. Score: 16.5 »

« This 1er Cru displays a beautiful structure, with fleshy and pretty notes of black fruit, all underlined with a delicate touch of spice. » La Revue Des Vins De France/Juin 2010 \(p119\)

"Beautiful impression on the nose, with earthy and toasted oak aroma. A sprinkle of vanilla on the intense cherry aromas. Consistent tannins combined with a certain ripeness. Fleshy, muscular and supple with a sappy and yet elegant character which is not so common for this village. This wine which is not known already displays a good balance which may induce you to enjoy it right away."
